About the role

The purpose of the role is to join our busy team working on a range of company commercial matters, as well as develop relationships with new clients and to be actively involved in business development. The successful candidate will work alongside the company commercial partner, a solicitor and supported by a secretary. The appointment will be between 5 and 10 years PQE level with broad company and commercial experience.

The candidate will be a specialist in a wide range of non-contentious company and corporate work including mergers and acquisitions, corporate sales, restructures and associated transactions, joint ventures, LLPs, partnerships, and corporate finance with experience of commercial work an advantage.

The aim is for the successful applicant to join Longmores as soon as possible.

The position represents a great opportunity for a solicitor to work alongside the Head of Department to assist in the development of the company and commercial offering and enhance the client base in that regard. You will naturally be enthusiastic and committed, able to take a flexible attitude to work and keen to contribute to the growth of the firm. Experience of commercial contract work is a further advantage. A strong commitment to working in Hertfordshire and adjacent counties is desirable. A natural 'self-starter', the candidate should also feel comfortable in a range of business development activities. There is no requirement for a following for this position.

In addition to the caseload the successful candidate will be expected to be actively involved in business development including presenting of seminars, writing articles and blogs, networking within the business community, and with key referrers primarily in Hertfordshire and London.
