

Charles Fraser Senior Solicitor and Head of Older and Vulnerable Client team

Victoria Wood Associate Solicitor in the Older and Vulnerable Client team

We can provide advice on ensuring your autistic child is protected when you are no longer around. You can secure their legacy and create a lasting impact with our help.

Talk to us about:

- Wills
Ensure your assets are distributed the way you want
- Trusts
Reduce the risk of them losing benefits
- Lasting powers of attorney
Choosing people to make decisions when you can not
- Court of Protection applications
Applying to make decisions on behalf of someone else

Meet the team

Charles Fraser qualified as a solicitor more than 25 years ago and advises individuals and families about their wills, trusts and inheritance tax planning arrangements with a particular emphasis on elderly and vulnerable clients. Having a child on the autistic spectrum gives him a greater understanding in this area.

Victoria Wood also specialises in supporting older and vulnerable clients, managing their financial affairs and safeguarding their welfare. Whether her client is an elderly person with dementia, or a child with learning difficulties, she takes a carefully tailored approach to provide the support they need.

Ensure your gift changes their lives for the better

About Longmores

We have more than 200 years' experience to draw on and know that our clients want lawyers who are prepared to listen and be honest.

We are proud to support our clients through some of the most challenging experiences of their personal and professional lives.

Working with us

- Specialist knowledge delivered by an experienced team of highly qualified solicitors
- Advice tailored to your needs with a dedicated solicitor who will look after you from start to finish
- A range of meeting options to suit your needs: at home, online or in our office

Contact us

charles.fraser@longmores.law 01992 305222
longmores.law

-  Longmores Solicitors
-  @Longmores
-  Longmores Solicitors

Ensure your gift changes their lives for the better